TEN MILES OF WHISKEY AFIRE WASHER GRINDS MAN TO DEATH

LAWRENCE, Ag. 6.—David Barua took his life at the Pacific Mills today, having drawn into a washing machine by his apron. Death was practically instantaneous. He leaves a wife and one son.

$1,500 DIAMONDS IN LOST SLIPPER

CHICAGO, Ag. 6.—Somewhere in Chicago there is a Cinderella slipper which is worth at least $1,500. The Cinderella, it is the six-year-old daughter of Mrs. L. Silverman, who lives at 2000 N. Indiana avenue, and her last slipper holds diamond valued at $1,500, the property of her mother. Friday morning the slippers were thrown into the garbage. Mrs. Silverman, who had been waiting for her diamond ring and brooches it was remembered the valuables had not been hidden in a "slipper." Mrs. Silverman found one of her child's shoes in the alley, but nothing was

He provides for her comforts, gives her liberty to do as she pleases and expects her to believe that he loves her.

Her children are either so young that their time is spent with governesses or else they are too old to play with other children; all her friends and relatives are out in society, absorbed in their own pleasures, and she has no one to glaze in the world many hours in the day, many hours in the evening.
She has a husband who is a good husband,—perhaps she only feels conscious that she has never known the real passion, and the thought of which is so discontented with himself.

Time Does Not Teach

She sees nothing ahead of her, but she knows that she will grow old, children will go into homes of their wife or brother, the devoutly religious woman, who has been brought up with the notion of an occupation and duty for every hour of her life, who has purpose, are not likely to rank themselves among the idle rich, and to waste their time in idleness.

Their mother is also someone married like her, but she keeps the sweetness and warmth of youth, and whose heart is still the lover and comforter of her children.

But they are few compared to the great masses of the mistreated, the un-
